Current Responsibility

Eric Buzby is a consulting actuary with the New York office of Milliman. He joined the firm in 2016.

Professional Work Experience

Eric has over 15 years of healthcare actuarial consulting experience, with specialized expertise in health plan pricing and strategy and Medicare Advantage bid development. His employer consulting background includes financial forecasting and reporting, underwriting, reserving, and benefit plan strategy. Within the Medicare Advantage space, Eric offers expertise in risk score coding and monitoring, as well as feasibility assessments for prospective insurers. He is also skilled in ad-hoc model building to support tailored analyses that inform strategic decisions.

Prior to joining Milliman, Eric held consulting roles at a leading employee benefits firm, managing several mid- and large-size employer clients. His responsibilities included PBM contract pricing, health plan underwriting, wellness program strategy, and assisting several clients in the transition to a private exchange.
