MASON SPITZ

FCAS, MAAA

Actuary

mason.spitz@milliman.com

262-771-1531

Current Responsibility

Mason Spitz is an actuary with the Milwaukee office of Milliman. He joined the firm in June 2022.

Professional Work Experience

Mason's area of expertise is property and casualty insurance, particularly loss reserving, pricing, and pro-forma financial modeling. Within this space, he has experience in multiple lines of business, including mortgage insurance, asbestos liability, talc liability, workers' compensation, medical professional liability, personal auto, and homeowners, among others. Mason has assisted clients with assignments including:

- Reserving analyses
- M&A due diligence for legacy liability transactions
- Pricing, including ratemaking, development of class plans, and competitive analyses
- Model reviews
- Pro-forma financial projections
- Capital adequacy studies

Professional Designations

- Fellow, Casualty Actuarial Society
- Member, American Academy of Actuaries

Education

- BBA, Actuarial Science, University of Wisconsin - Madison
- BBA, Risk Management and Insurance, University of Wisconsin - Madison
- BBA, Finance, Investment and Banking, University of Wisconsin - Madison

Presentations and Publications

- How housing finance agencies can better measure performance, benchmark results, and prepare for emerging risks (August, 2026)
- AI-powered asbestos defense could unlock $1 billion or more in annual savings for defendants (August, 2026)
- What Does Inflation Mean for Medical Professional Liability Indemnity Severity? (October, 2022)